New Shopping Venue Unveils to Toledo-Area Residents

The Town Center at Levis Commons offers unique, open-air atmosphere and first to market shopping experiences.

Perrysburg, Ohio (October 22, 2004) – The Town Center at Levis Commons will open its doors to Northwest Ohio next Tuesday, October 26. The unique, open-air lifestyle shopping experience brings with it opening the addition of several new and first to market retailers, including Talbots/Talbots Petites, Jos. A. Bank Clothiers, Ann Taylor LOFT and Strausburg Children.

“We’re excited about this new Toledo-area landmark,” comments Bob Spratt, President of Hill Partners, the developer of The Town Center at Levis Commons. “It’s a refreshing shopping experience, that will soon offer distinctive stores, and unparalleled entertainment and dining. We’re hoping to bring a whole new way to look at where Northwest Ohio not only shops, but works and lives. It’s an inviting, bright and bold atmosphere.”

To celebrate and commemorate the Grand Opening event, an entire week of activities is being planned. On Tuesday, October 26, the lifestyle center will unveil with a ribbon cutting ceremony. The Town Center at Levis Commons will host several area politicians, dignitaries and area celebrities during the celebration. On Thursday, a VIP after hours business celebration is being planned. This event will thank area businesses and partners who have worked diligently to bring this new venue to Northwest Ohio.

During the Grand Opening weekend, The Town Center at Levis Commons will also welcome special friends and families of the town center with a Friends Only shopping day as a way to say thank you to area residents who have long awaited the arrival of the new retail experience. On Saturday, families will be in the spotlight, with activities planned to focus on bringing families together, including face painting, free snacks, and entertainment.

“The Grand Opening celebrations are our way of saying thank you to the community,” shares Angela Krumpelman, Marketing Director for The Town Center at Levis Commons. “This venue has been a long time in the making, and we’re just so excited to unveil it to Northwest Ohio, and share our passion for making the area bigger, brighter and better than ever.”
